The Utility Fuel Economic Model and the National Power Model form the core of an integrated assessment system to analyze the impact of changes in regulations and environmental policies in the United States. The system is based on detailed plant and mine level data, comprises some 62 control areas with detailed load data accounting for differences in time zones.

For further information about this application please contact:
lloyd-hillocoal@erols.com or call Hill & Associates Inc.: (410) 263-6616